

On behalf of everyone at Collie, we extend to you all our best wishes for a safe and relaxing Christmas / New Year period. The Collie office will close on 22 December and will reopen on 4 January. We look forward to talking to you in the new year.

New Staff.

A number of new staff have joined Collie in 2006.

Sarah Howell joined our team in March 2006 as an urban planner. Sarah has completed a Master of Social Science (Environment and Planning) at RMIT University following undergraduate degrees in Bachelor of Engineering (Civil)(Hons) and Bachelor of Commerce, at the University of Melbourne. Sarah comes to Collie with four years public sector planning experience in Victoria, prior to which she was a business analyst at Accenture.

Luke Maiden, who is awaiting conferring of his Bachelor of Design (Landscape Architecture) degree from RMIT University, has joined the team as a Landscape Architect. Luke has a broad perspective on landscape from study in Australia and abroad as well as previous experience in both design and construction on a residential scale. Since joining Collie, Luke has worked on a number of projects, from small landscape plans to being part of the project team on some of the larger Collie projects.

Sarah Griffiths joined the team in September 2006 as an urban planner. Sarah, from the UK, has completed a Masters in Town and County Planning and a Bachelor of Arts in Urban Development and Policy, both from the University of the West of England (UWE), Bristol. Sarah has over five years UK experience in the public sector having worked for two Councils in London in the urban planning area. Sarah's most recent experience was with Camden Council as one of a handful of urban planners within the Kings Cross Team working on the plans for the redevelopment of the railway lands around Kings Cross Station.

coll-e-bulletin QUIZ: WHO IS IT?

No, it isn't the real Santa Clause (or Gulliver for that matter) but which Collie team member is it?

Find out in the next coll-e-bulletin.

The answer to the last quiz.....

Children's Village Playground, Tenterfield. The finishing touches are being made to the Children's Village Playground in anticipation of its opening this week. The custom designed playground by Collie features exciting and unique play opportunities including timber sculptures created by Miriam Porter.
